

Adjektivets komparation

Facit

- 1 Mary's shoes are much cleaner than her brother's.
- 2 Peter's room is tidier than Bob's, but Kate's room is the tidiest.
- 3 Did you buy a more comfortable sofa this time than last time?
- 4 Yes, I bought the most comfortable sofa they had.
- 5 It is much smokier in London than here.
- 6 This is the smokiest room I have ever been in.
- 7 The most expensive seats are upstairs.
- 8 Why did they give you all the more expensive books?
- 9 A month ago the days were much darker than now.
- 10 The street where we live is much narrower than that one.
- 11 I have never met a more grateful boy than him.
- 12 Yes, he certainly is the most grateful boy I know too.
- 13 My suitcase is much heavier than yours.
- 14 Have you ever seen a more patient man than Mr Brown?
- 15 No, he really is the most patient man I have seen.
- 16 Did he help you to find a cheaper car this time?
- 17 Yes, this is the cheapest car I ever bought.
- 18 This is a much worse book than yours.
- 19 Is it the worst book you have read?
- 20 I don't think you can find a more practical car than ours.
- 21 My brother is much worse today than yesterday.
- 22 Peter is the most impatient boy I know.
- 23 There are less people here this year than last year.
- 24 The lady spoke much louder than the gentleman.
- 25 It is very wet in the stree today.
- 26 Wasn't it much wetter yesterday?
- 27 Yes, but I think last week was the wettest this year.
- 28 Is Bill really lazier than his brother?
- 29 Yes, he is the laziest of all pupils here.
- 30 Have you seen what a pale girl Susan is?