

"Skall" och "skulle"

Ren futurum, kommer att	skall will	skulle
Vilja, (tänker, tänkte)	be going to	was going to
Omedelbart förestående	be going to	was going to
På förhand bestämt	be to + inf	was to + inf
I indirekt anföring Före if-sats		would would
Bör, borde	should	should

Regel

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | 1 We will certainly manage to do it. | We will certainly succeed in doing it. |
| 2 | 2 Mrs Brown is going to visit her sister. | Mrs Brown is going to see her sister. |
| 3 | 3 The clock is just going to strike. | x |
| 4 | 4 The train is to leave at half past eight. | The train is to depart at half past eight. |
| 5 | 5 They hoped that the police would help them. | x |
| 2 | 6 The following day his uncle was going to buy a second-hand car. | |
| 3 | 7 The doors were just going to be opened, when the queen arrived. | x |
| 4 | 8 They were to meet at the hotel, but one of them didn't come. | x |
| 7 | 9 You should always try to tell the truth. | x |
| 5 | 10 My father said, that I should read that book. | x |
| 6 | 11 We would go and visit them, if they didn't live that far away. | x |
| 2 | 12 What are you going to do in London? | x |
| 1 | 13 Every family will get a letter from school. | Every family will receive a letter from school. |
| 2 | 14 Are you going to do anything to help them? | x |
| 7 | 15 Mr Turner's grandson shouldn't say anything about it. | x |